VOLUME 6.

ROSWELL, NEW MEXICO, MONDAY EVENING, MAY 25, 1908

NUMBER 73

GLOVIS WAS QUITE EASY

FIRST GAME BETWEEN ROSWELL AND CITY ON THE PLAINS A ONE-SIDED AFFAIR.

BIG CROWD WAS PRESENT

Sunday Contest Draws About Five Hundred People to North Hill, and Although the Game Was One-Sided, the Result Was Satisfactory to Most of the Local Fans.

In the first of a three-game series, Roswell defeated Clovis seven to one at the Military Institute grounds Sunday afternoon. It being a day of rest, the game drew a big crowd to North Hill, the attendance being estimated at five hundred, and the crowd was satisfied with the local victory, altho the game was somewhat one-sided.

Wynne did the pitching for Roswell, but he hardly warmed up all through the game. He was given able support by the whole team, and the seven hits that were secured off his delivery earned no runs, one of the two errors figuring in the one run secured by Clovis. Nelson started the pitching for Clovis, and in three innings allowed five hits. Then Cheser went in the box and in five innings allowed but three hits. The Clovis boys went way up in the air at times, and the eight errors that are chalked down against them account for five of Roswell's runs.

The locals had the game from the first and the principal cause for joy in the hearts of local fandom was that the visitors were being given a good beating in revenge for the defeat administered to Roswell by the Clovis umpire at Clovis a few Sundays past.

Roswell's two earned runs are easily accounted for. In the second Walker rapped out a three-bagger. Then Wynne hit a home-run. Wynne usually secures a runner, and on this occasion when he reached first he looked around for someone to run, but there was nobody there. Then he ran to second and again looked around for a runner. Still nobody was there to help him out, so he galloped on the rest of the circuit, the Clovis fielder still chasing his long drive to left field. A recital of how Roswell made the rest of its scores would be tedious.

Clovis scored in the fifth, Guber securing a three-bagger and coming in on an error at first.

Fred Wilson made a pretty play for Roswell in the second. With a man on first he saw that Osmon intended to bunt and ran from his position on third to within twenty-five feet of home plate, and when Osmon did bunt he caught the ball on the fly about fifteen feet from home and threw out the man at first before he could return. Stains played a great game for Roswell in left field and caught a long foul fly that was simply astounding.

The same teams are playing this afternoon and will play again tomorrow at Amusement Park.

Mrs. L. L. Wells of Henrietta, Tex., is here visiting her sisters, Mrs. Min-ter, Mrs. Lucius Dills, Mrs. John Ashbust, Mrs. V. R. Kenney, and other relatives. She will make an extended visit in Roswell.

"We have heard that Dr. G. T. THE PUBLIC BUILDING

SENATE AND HOUSE CONFEREES AGREED ON THE BILL SATURDAY EVENING.

ROSWELL GETS $100,000

Albuquerque Irrigation Congress Gets $30,000.—Rumors That the President May Veto the Bill.—Threats Made to Pass It Over His Veto Should That Happen.

Washington, May 25.—The conference on the omnibus public buildings bill reached an agreement late Saturday. The senate won out in most of its amendments to the bill. The bill will include $100,000 for the building at Roswell. The National Irrigation congress at Albuquerque will get thirty thousand dollars.

The talk of the president vetoing the bill is still rife. It is generally understood, however, that the bill is to be pushed to completion and if the president should veto it rush it through over his veto.

SETTLEMENT LEFT TO VOTE OF NON-UNIONISTS
Cleveland, O., May 25.—Peace in the street railway strike hangs upon the result of a vote of non-union employees now at work, which was taken today. If the vote is favorable the strike will be stopped immediately, under an armistice which will continue until all matters are finally settled by arbitration. The non-union men were ordered by President Duport, of the Traction company, to vote upon the question whether they will take an equal chance with the old employees before the board of arbitration.

Coal Strike Settled.
Kansas City, Mo., May 24.—Representatives of the Southwestern coal operators and miners today formally signed a wage scale and working agreement governing conditions in the mines for two years. The terms are practically the same as existed last year.

THAW WILL NOT BE RELEASED FROM ASYLUM.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 25.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, will not be released from the lunatic asylum. This is the decision reached by Justice Morehauser of the supreme court. In the opinion filed early this morning in the matter of the application for Thaw's release on a writ of habeas corpus, both points brought up by Thaw's counsel are decided against. The judge declares that Thaw is now insane and should not be allowed at large, and further declared that the commitment to the asylum by Justice Dowling after the last trial of the case was entirely legal.

Thaw's lawyers will appeal to the court for permission to place Thaw in some other institution than Matteawan asylum, and by stipulation with the district attorney, the prisoner will be kept in jail here until Justice Morehauser renders a decision. He is holding court at White Plains this week and will not be able to hear the application until next week.

PRIEST STABBED BY INSANE FARMER.

St. Louis, May 25.—Rev. Father Jos. F. Lubeley, who was brought to St. Mary's infirmary after having been stabbed by Joseph Schutee immediately following church services at Salisbury, Mo., yesterday, was reported by his attendants today to be resting comfortably. Unless unlooked for complications arise he will be able to leave the hospital within three weeks.

The priest was stabbed twice with a pocket knife, the first thrust wounding him in the temple, and the second narrowly missing the jugular vein. Schutee rushed upon the priest from behind in view of 400 worshippers. Schutee is a farmer, and had been a devout member of St. Joseph's church. It is believed he became deranged on account of a public reprimand.

HERE'S A NICE MESS FOR THE GOSSIPS.

Paris, May 25.—M. Cachard, attorney for Mme. Gould, who is engaged in preparing the contract for her marriage to Prince de Sagan, authorizes the Associated Press to deny absolutely the story that the couple were secretly married at Hoboken, N. J., on the eve of their departure for Europe last month. The marriage will take place soon.

Count Boni de Castellane is prepared the moment the banns are published to bring suit for the transfer of the custody of the Castellane children to himself, on the grounds that Prince de Sagan is not fit to be their step-father.

TWO KILLED IN STREET CAR

ACCIDENT IN PHILADELPHIA.
Philadelphia, May 25.—A street car accident late last night near Chestnut Hill Park, twelve miles from the center of the city, in which two persons were killed and over forty injured, was one of the worst trolley crashes that has occurred here for years. The dead are Mary J. Wagner, aged 64, of Cornwall, Pa., and Charles Allebach, of this city. Of the injured several are in serious condition.

Six cars carrying over two hundred persons were involved in the accident, which was caused by the brake chains breaking on one car on a steep hill. This car ran backward down hill at great speed, striking the car behind, sending it back into another, and so on until six cars were wrecked.

BAD FLOOD AT DALLAS

SUDDEN RISE IN TRINITY RIVER SWEEPS OUT BRIDGES AND INUNDATES TOWN.

PROPERTY LOSS HEAVY

Seven Deaths Reported.—Many Persons Driven From Their Homes Barely Escaping With Their Lives. Flood Conditions in Oklahoma are Serious.—Hundreds Abandon Their Homes.

Dallas, Tex., May 25.—What may result in one of the most destructive floods in Dallas and vicinity in recent years is threatened today as a result of the very sudden and record-breaking rise of Trinity river. Already one life is known to be lost. The section of the city known as Eagle Ford Road is inundated, many families being driven from their homes, and the power plant of the Dallas Street Railway Company is under water to the first floor cutting off all light and power currents.

The flooded section is along stretches of lowland, and many residence and business sections of the city will probably escape the water's invasion.

The property loss will be heavy. Those driven from their homes were forced to leave all their possessions, many barely escaping with their lives. Household goods in many instances were piled high, their owners climbing to the summit of the piles to escape the rapidly encroaching waters.

LATER:—A section of the Texas and Pacific railroad bridge has just gone down. Fifteen men were thrown into the river and six drowned.

Trinity river rose from 28 feet at 10 p. m. Sunday to 41 feet at six this morning, and is still rising. The village of West Dallas, across the river, is partly inundated, hundreds of families being forced to seek higher ground. The Commerce street bridge is partly washed away and there is no travel between the city and the west side of the river. Street car traffic is suspended, and the traffic on the inter-urban line between Dallas and Fort Worth has been discontinued. In the city proper there is likely to be much distress, as the water and light plants are closed down. The Santa Fe railroad bridge has gone down and traffic over this line is discontinued. People living along the river below the city were not prepared for the sudden rise, which came without warning, and there were many narrow escapes from drowning. Some horses and cattle were swept away.

This afternoon the stream was a raging flood. Hundreds of people were caught in the lowlands and these were taken out in boats. It is reported that a number were drowned. From the banks of the stream many can be seen clinging to trees and roofs. The city is without water for drinking purposes. The Continental Gin Company's plant caught fire today. Lines of hose were laid to the nearby river and water pumped from there. The fire was extinguished after doing several thousand dollars damage.

Brazos Also Raging.
Waco, Tex., May 25.—The Brazos river is the highest here by two feet ever known. Thousands of acres are flooded and the damage to crops is heavy. People were driven from their homes in the lowlands. Five inches of rain fell here in ten hours. The railroads are washed out badly.

Serious Floods in Oklahoma.
Guthrie, Okla., May 24.—The flood conditions in Oklahoma were still serious today, though there has been no heavy rain since yesterday. The streams continue to rise today and several points are isolated. Railroads over the entire state are practically out of commission. Hundreds of persons abandoned their homes in the bottoms and escaped to the hills.

The rainfall broke all old records. The town that suffered the greatest damage are West Guthrie, Tulsa, Jenkins, Muskogee, Shawnee and Sapulpa. Many bridges on the Cottonwood, Canadian and Arkansas rivers were wrecked. It will be a week or more before the train service is fully restored.
